

Platelet Factor 4 (PF4) is released from platelets upon activation and binds to endothelial cell glycosaminoglycans from where it can be displaced by heparin, then forming heparin-PF4 complexes.

